DRIVING AND PARKING DIRECTIONS

PARKING is available in three locations:

The statehouse underground parking lot is attached to our building by a labyrinth of underground walkways, starting on the parking lot's upper (Green) level, on the west (High Street) end, in the middle of the block. It connects to the lower level of the Huntington Center. When you enter the Huntington Center, stay left and follow the hallway connecting the Huntington Center to the Huntington Building (our building). Follow the hallway (staying to the left) to the elevators and come up to the 12th floor.

Another set of parking garages are located on the east side of Front Street, one behind (south of) the Huntington Center (which is also the parking lot for the DoubleTree Hotel), and another just before you come to Broad Street (under what used to be called the "Huntington Trust Building").

The last parking lot is also on Front Street, at the corner of Front and Gay Streets, next to (just north of) the LeVeque Tower.

DRIVING from the North (Dublin/Worthington) on 315:
